

George Dimitrakopoulos, DDS

Giorgos Dimitrakopoulos graduated from the Dental School of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens in 2006 and maintains a private practice in GR - Chalkida, Evia Island, since 2008. He has a special interest in biomimetics, minimally invasive adhesive dentistry and dental photography. He lectures nationally and internationally on rubber dam isolation techniques, direct biomimetic restorations and indirect bonded restorations.