

Dr. Pantelis Kouros DDS, PhD

Graduated from the Dental School, Aristoteles University of Thessaloniki, in 1997 and completed his postgraduate studies in the field of Operative Dentistry at 2001. Supported his PhD thesis at 2011. Currently completing his MSc at Aesthetic Dentistry at King's College London. Staff member of Operative Dentistry sector at Dental School of Thessaloniki, tutoring to postgraduate and undergraduate level. Honored with the 1st prize for research from the Academy of Operative Dentistry - European Sector, 2013, Paris. Published research papers nationally and internationally. Co-authoring in scientific book chapters and guidelines. Owner of a private practice in Thessaloniki, active since 1998, mainly focusing on direct restorations as well as adhesive and aesthetic functional rehabilitation protocols. Tutor in a series of hands-on on direct restorations.