

Prof. Dr. Lior Shapira DMD, PhD

Prof. Lior Shapira is the Chairman of the Department of Periodontology and Vice Dean for Education in the Hebrew University- Hadassah Faculty of Dental Medicine in Jerusalem [2004-]. He graduated from the Dental Faculty at the Hebrew University, Jerusalem in 1986, and achieved his specialty in Periodontology in 1990. Following a 2 year fellowship in the Eastman Dental Center (University of Rochester, NY), he completed his PhD thesis on the pathogenesis of periodontal diseases in Jerusalem. His research is focused on the mechanisms of inflammation during periodontal and peri-implant infections and he published over 100 scientific papers as well as many reviews. The impact of his research work was acknowledged by several international awards, including Teva award (1996), Rizzo Award (IADR periodontal research group, 1999), as a finalist in the "Jaccard-EFP Research Price Competition" in 2000, Sunstar Award (Best article on perio-systemic connection, 2003) and finally the "Distinguish Scientist Award in Periodontal Research" of the IADR in 2009. Currently Prof. Lior Shapira is serving at the editorial boards of the Journal of Clinical Periodontology, the Journal of Periodontology, and the Journal of Osseointegration. He is a past member of the editorial board of the Journal of Dental Research for 5 years. Prof. Shapira served as a board member of the Israeli Society of Periodontology and Osseointegration between the years 1998-2002, and was the President of the Israeli Society in 2001.