

Dr. Vasilios Banikas, MD, DDS, OMFS

Dr. Banikas graduated from the School of Dental Medicine of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki / Military School of Officer Corps, Hellenic Army, Thessaloniki (DDS degree) and from the Medical School of the Democritus University of Thrace (MD degree) [all in Greece]. He trained in 424 Military Hospital of Thessaloniki and in G. Papanikolaou University Hospital (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki). Dr. Banikas gained a Certification of Complete Training (C.C.T.) according to the European Medical Directive 2005/36/EC and a U.E.M.S. recognized qualification of the medical specialty of “Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery”, after succeeding to the regional Board Exams. During his training, Dr. Banikas gained valuable and international experience in various topics of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, including Oral, Head and Neck Oncology and Reconstruction, Maxillofacial Trauma, Orthognathic surgery and Salivary gland surgery. He also attended several training courses. He is a member of the European Association for Cranio Maxillo-Facial Surgery, Association of Osteosynthesis Cranio Maxillo-Facial and the Hellenic Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons and he is a registered member of both Medical and Dental Associations of Thessaloniki. Dr. Banikas has published and lecture both nationally and internationally and currently he is Consultant at the 424 General Military Hospital of Thessaloniki and private practicing at the Euromedica Medical Center in Thessaloniki and in his own office in Katerini [all in Greece].

